

WHAT BENEFITS DO
SHEPHERD CHURCHES RECEIVE UPON
CHARTERING/RE-CERTIFYING?

1. Subscription to Scouting News, a quarterly publication of the General Commission on United Methodist Men. A copy will be sent to the pastor and local church scouting coordinator.
2. Notices of training events for scouting coordinators and other leaders.
3. An invitation to the United Methodist Scouter's Workshop, a week-long training experience conducted annually at the Philmont Training Center, Cimarron, New Mexico.
4. Access to scouting ministry resources including books, supplies, and related items.
5. Up-to-date news from the Office of Scouting Ministries and access to additional information and resources on www.umscouting.org.

The United Methodist General Conference recognizes the Office of Scouting Ministry of the General Commission on United Methodist Men as the official organization responsible for scouting ministries.

The General Commission will provide... support ...for the promotion of youth-serving/scouting ministries within the United Methodist Church...

— The 2008 Book of Discipline (§2302.5)

Please list the number and type of unit(s) that your church sponsors (for example, BSA Pack 123, Girl Scout Troop 456, etc.).

SPECIAL NOTE

The Shepherd Church Charter

Recognition is dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Mildred Keeney, a long-time United Methodist scouter. She encouraged churches to utilize scouting as a way to attract and nurture young people with the love of Jesus Christ.

Mildred initiated the concept for this recognition.

SHEPHERD CHURCH
CHARTER
RECOGNITION

*"I am the good shepherd and I know
my sheep,
and am known
by my own."*

— John 10:14

"To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before the man and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice."

— John 10:14

PURPOSE

To annually recognize churches that provide outstanding scouting/youth mentoring ministry to their communities through sponsorship of one or more of the following civic youth-serving agencies: Boy Scouts of America (BSA), Girl Scouts of the USA (GSUSA), Camp Fire USA (CFUSA), 4-H, and/or Big Brothers Big Sisters of America (BBBS). These churches welcome all youth and children; nurture them as they grow to become good citizens with a deeper relationship with God; and work with them in service to others.

Train a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not turn from it.

— Proverbs 22:6.

CRITERIA

1. Sponsor one or more of the following groups: BSA, GSUSA, CFUSA, 4-H and/or BBBS to meet the needs of youth and children in the congregation and in the community. The 2008 Book of Discipline ¶256.4a) encourages churches to have signed partnership agreements.
2. Offer and encourage participation in the God and Country series, a religious education program for youth and children, grades 1-12 (2008 Book of Discipline ¶256.4). For more information visit Programs of Religious Activities with Youth (www.praypub.org).
3. Observe a Scouting Ministries Sunday or conduct a separate Sunday service for each group.
4. Encourage each troop/group in the church to annually participate in at least one community service project. Service projects benefiting and in cooperation with the sponsoring church are encouraged.
5. Elect or appoint a scouting coordinator who reports regularly to the governing body of the local church (2008 Book of Discipline ¶253).

SHEPHERD CHURCH CHARTER RECOGNITION FORM
